

Daily Outlook

GLOBAL STOCK INDEX

DJIA	U.S. stocks eased further from recent record highs on Thursday as energy shares dropped along with oil prices and investors continued to digest comments by Federal Reserve Chairman Jerome Powell. The energy index was down the most among the major S&amp;P sectors, falling 1.71% and extending its recent slide. U.S. oil prices slid more than 2 percent on fears of oversupply. Powell's comments on Wednesday that a decline in inflation this year could be due to transitory factors dampened some investors' hopes that the U.S. central bank could move later this year to cut interest rates, market watchers said. Traders lowered their bets on a rate cut this year following Powell's comments, and stocks fell, but many investors said the Fed's stance makes sense. The S&amp;P 500's recent run to record highs also may be giving investors reasons to pause. The index has rallied more than 16 percent this year and is entering a period of the year traditionally known as being difficult for equities over the next six months. On the day, the Dow Jones Industrial Average fell 122.35 points, or 0.46%, to 26,307.79, the S&amp;P 500 lost 6.21 points, or 0.21%, to 2,917.52, and the Nasdaq Composite dropped 12.87 points, or 0.16%, to 8,036.77. With the first-quarter earnings season winding down, investors are looking for fresh catalysts such as U.S.-China trade developments and economic data. Markets also are waiting for a reading of the Labor Department's non-farm payrolls data on Friday that is expected to show fewer job additions last month compared with March. More than 350 of the S&amp;P 500 companies have reported their results so far on the first quarter. Analysts now expect earnings to have risen 0.7%, compared with the 2% fall estimated at the beginning of April, according to IBES data from Refinitiv data. Among gainers, Qualcomm Inc rose 0.9% after analysts said the chipmaker was well positioned in the 5G networks space even as it forecast disappointing current-quarter sales. The Philadelphia Semiconductor index gained 1.1%.
Nikkei	Japan's financial markets are closed from Saturday, April 27 to Monday, May 6 for the Golden Week holidays. Reuters will resume coverage of Japanese stock markets and government bonds when markets reopen on May 7.
Kospi	South Korea's KOSPI stock index rose on Thursday as foreigners stepped up purchases and on improved factory activity in April amid market holidays in Japan and China. The Korean won strengthened, and the benchmark bond yield rose. The Seoul stock market's main KOSPI rose 9.16 points or 0.42 percent to 2,212.75. Foreigners were net buyers of 63.6 billion won worth of shares on the main board. South Korea's factory activity rebounded in April helped by a boost in hiring, snapping five months of contraction, a private manufacturing survey showed on Thursday. S.Korea April exports fell 2.0 pct y/y, less than forecast The won was quoted at 1,165.7 per dollar on the onshore settlement platform, 0.21 percent higher than its previous close at 1,168.2. In offshore trading, the won was quoted at 1,165.4 per U.S. dollar, down 0.1 percent from the previous day, while in one-year non-deliverable forward trading its one-month contract was quoted at 1,164.1 per dollar. MSCI's broadest index of Asia-Pacific shares outside Japan was up 0.07 percent, after U.S. stocks fell. The KOSPI has risen 8.41 percent so far this year, and gained 1.2 percent in the previous 30 trading sessions.
Hang Seng &amp; Shanghai	Hong Kong stocks closed firmer on Thursday as investors cheered signs of progress in the U.S.-China trade negotiations, while financials and property shares boosted the index after the U.S. Federal Reserve kept the target range for policy rate steady. At the close of trade, the Hang Seng index was up 245.07 points, or 0.83 percent, at 29,944.18. The Hang Seng China Enterprises index closed 0.13 percent higher at 11,556.72. China markets were closed for Labour Day holiday and will resume trading on Monday, May 6. The United States and China are nearing a trade deal that would roll back a portion of on Wednesday after U.S. Treasury Secretary Steven the $250 billion in U.S. tariffs on Chinese goods, Politico reported Mnuchin said the two countries completed "productive" talks in Beijing. The U.S. Federal Reserve on Wednesday held interest rates steady and signaled little appetite to adjust them any time soon, taking heart in continued job gains and economic growth and the likelihood that weak inflation will edge higher.
