

Daily Outlook GLOBAL STOCK INDEX

	U.S. stocks rallied more than 1% on Thursday, buoyed by gains in the trade-sensitive technology and industrial sectors as China expressed hope on trade negotiations with the United States, easing concerns that rising tensions could stoke a recession.
	China's commerce ministry said both sides are discussing the next round of talks scheduled for September, but progress would be determined by whether Washington could create favorable conditions.
	U.S. President Donald Trump said in a Fox News radio interview that trade talks were scheduled for Thursday "at a different level," but did not provide details.
	Some analysts cautioned that the comments from China were light on substance, and pointed to month-end rebalancing on Friday as supportive of stock gains.
	Heavyweight tech stocks with tariff exposure, such as Apple Inc, up 1.69%, and Microsoft, up 1.89%, boosted the technology sector by 1.73% for its best day since Aug. 16.
	Chipmakers, which draw a large part of their revenue from China, also gained, sending the Philadelphia
DJIA	semiconductor index .SOX up 2.25%.
 	Advertisement
	Industrial names that have also been highly correlated to trade progress, such as United Technologies, advanced, with the sector up 1.77%.
	The Dow Jones Industrial Average rose 326.15 points, or 1.25%, to 26,362.25, the S&P 500 gained 36.63 points, or 1.27%, to 2,924.57 and the Nasdaq Composite added 116.51 points, or 1.48%, to 7,973.39.
	Still, the three main indexes were on course to log their worst monthly performance and first monthly decline since a selloff in May, on worries the intensified trade battle between the world's two largest economies will lead to a global recession.
	The Trump administration on Wednesday made official its additional 5% tariff on $300 billion in Chinese imports and set collection dates of Sept. 1 and Dec. 15, prompting several hundreds of U.S. companies to warn of price hikes.
	A number of companies, including electronics retailer Best Buy Co Inc and teen apparel retailer Abercrombie & Fitch Co, reported results earlier on Thursday and warned of the impact from tariffs.
	Japan's Nikkei share average edged lower on Thursday, as an early Wall Street-led bounce gave way to lingering concerns that trade conflicts and political risks would hurt the global economy.
	The Nikkei ended the session down 0.09% at 20,460.93, having advanced a modest 0.15% the previous day. The index rose as much as 0.2% in early trade after all three of the major U.S. stock indexes posted Niild.ai	gains overnight.
Nikkei	But the Nikkei's rise sputtered on underlying concerns about another flare-up in the U.SChina trade war and latest developments in the Brexit saga pointing to fresh turbulence in the financial markets ahead.
	Global markets remain on edge after the latest flurry of tit-for-tat tariffs between Washington and Beijing, and the lack of firm details on the next round of trade talks between the two countries did little to ease nerves.
	South Korean shares extended losses on Thursday as Samsung Group affiliates fell following a court ruling over the group heir's bribery case. The Korean won weakened, while the benchmark bond yield was unchanged.
	Shares of a majority of Samsung Group affiliates declined after South Korea's top court overturned part of an appeals court ruling in the bribery case of the group's de facto chief Jay Y. Lee.
Kospi	Twelve of the 15 listed Samsung companies ended the day lower, with Samsung Electronics dropping
	1.7% and Samsung BioLogics plunging 4.9%.
	The broader KOSPI, which has been pressured by global growth worries, extended its losses after the ruling, said Park Sang-hyun, an analyst with HI Investment & Securities.
	The Seoul stock market's main KOSPI ended down 7.68 points or 0.40% at 1,933.41 points.
	> Hong Kong stocks reversed course to end higher on Thursday on fresh comments from China that Beijing and Washington were in discussions and would try to resolve the year-long trade dispute between both economies.
Hang Seng &	The Hang Seng index ended up 0.3% at 25,703.50, while the China Enterprises Index closed 0.1% higher
Shanghai	at 9,992.64. Following a lacklustre start to the session, investor sentiment was lifted after China's commerce ministry said they were in discussions with the United States. Both sides "should create
	conditions" for progress in negotiations scheduled next month, Gao Feng, the ministry's spokesman told reporters during a weekly briefing, adding that China was against escalating the trade war with the United States and was willing to resolve the issue calmly. In the latest tit-for-tat escalation of the trade war between the world's two largest economies, U.S. President Donald Trump last Friday heaped an additional duty of 5% on about $550 billion in targeted Chinese goods. Meanwhile, China rotated troops in its People's Liberation Army garrison in Hong Kong on Thursday, days before protesters planned to hold a march calling for full democracy for the Chinese-ruled city after three months of sometimes violent demonstrations. Chinese state media described the troop movement in the early hours as routine and said that Asian and Western diplomats watching PLA movements in the former British colony had been expecting it.

➤ China stocks weakened on Thursday, led by banks and developers, weighed down by worries of a global recession from an intensifying U.S.-China trade war and the rising possibility of a no-deal Brexit. The CSI300 index fell 0.4% to 3,789.12 at the end of the morning session, while the Shanghai Composite Index slipped 0.1% to 2,890.29.

The U.S. Trade Representative's office on Wednesday reaffirmed President Donald Trump's plans to impose an additional 5% tariff on a list of $300 billion of Chinese imports starting on Sept. 1 and Dec. 15.

Prime Minister Boris Johnson will suspend Britain's parliament for more than a month before Brexit, limiting the time opponents have to derail a disorderly Brexit.

Bond markets around the world painted a gloomier picture, with yields on 30-year U.S. Treasuries and 10-year German bunds yield both hitting record lows - 1.905% and minus 0.716% on Wednesday.

Leading the decliners was the CSI300 real estate index, which fell 2.2% after a domestic media report that multiple banks were required to tighten real estate development loans from Thursday.

Banking stocks also softened following a report that China is considering new rules for the country's small-to-medium financial institutions to reduce risk in the wider economy.

In Hong Kong, the Hang Seng index dropped 0.4% to 25,524.26, while the Hong Kong China Enterprises Index lost 0.6% to 9,918.26.

China rotated troops in its People's Liberation Army garrison in Hong Kong on Thursday, days before protesters planned to hold a march calling for full democracy for the Chinese-ruled city after three months of sometimes violent demonstrations.
